For Immediate Release

Clinton County Auditor Terry Habermehl is cautioning all farmers to ensure that they received their annual renewal applications for Current Agricultural Use Valuation (CAUV) from his office. The forms were mailed on January 16, 2026. However, Habermehl stated that his office is receiving numerous communications from farmers who have not received their renewal forms.

The auditor stressed that anyone who has not received their renewal applications should contact his office as soon as possible since the deadline to return them is March 2, 2026.

His office can be reached by telephone at 937-382-2250.
